

Intelligence Resource Management

The Intelligence & Security Academy, LLC www.isallc.net

Course Overview

This one-day course provides learners with an overview of how the intelligence budget is developed, approved, and executed. It begins by discussing the documents that determine budget priorities and identifies the officials and offices with important budgetary responsibilities. Next, the course compares the major intelligence budgets as well as the processes used to build them. The course then describes the role of the White House and the legislative branch in completing the intelligence budget. The course concludes with a discussion of how intelligence dollars are managed once the budget is finalized.

Education & Training at ISA

Considered a leading provider in the national security educational space, ISA has over 20 years of experience in designing, developing, and delivering course content for federal, non-profit, and private sector clients. Our federal government clients include the Department of State (INR and OSAC), DOD, CIA, DIA, NRO, NGA, ODNI, OPM, the Military Departments, Combatant Commands, and the United States Congress.

ISA believes in a blended approach to education. We vary teaching techniques, including podium presentations by subject matter experts, featured guest speakers, in-class exercises, case studies with student presentations and discussions, and the use of other media that allow students to apply their knowledge in real-time.

Instructor Bio

Richard P. McFarland is an independent consultant in the national security and infrastructure communities. He is also an active member of the Professional Services Council and Mt. Vernon Historical Association. Mr. McFarland's experience includes positions in both the public and private sectors. Before retiring from industry in the spring of 2022, he served as a career Air Force officer working on both Service and national space and intelligence programs which was followed by positions at Raytheon as Director of Congressional Relations, and at Parsons where he led their Washington Operations group. He holds an MPA from Auburn University, an MA in systems management from the University of Southern California, a BS in Russian political science and history from the Air Force Academy and is a graduate of the Defense Systems Management College. He is the recipient of the Defense Superior Service Medal and the Defense Meritorious Service Award.

June 21, 2024

Cost: $600 Per Student

If you are interested reach out to an ISA employee at 703-567-7757 or email us at learn@isallc.net

Enroll on our website

www.isallc.net/enroll

Schedule

0800 - 0830

Welcome and Introductions

0830 - 0945

Strategy, Guidance, and Key Players

0945 - 1000

Break

1000 - 1115

Budget Authorities

1115 - 1230

The PPBE and IPPBE Process

1230 - 1330

Lunch

1330 - 1445

The Role of OMB and Congress

1445 - 1500

Break

1500 - 1615

Executing the Budget

1615 - 1700

Q&A and Course Evaluations